

LOCAL NEWS.

The Weather Probabilities. Mar. 13 1882.—The Middle Atlantic States slightly cooler, but brighter, preceded on the immediate coast by light rain, north to west winds and rising barometer.

CONFIRMATION SERVICES AND OTHER RELIGIOUS ITEMS.—A large crowd attended Christ Church, Rev. H. B. Butler, rector, Saturday night last to witness the confirmation services. Rev. F. M. Whitte, D. D., after preaching an interesting sermon from the text, "And thou shalt call his name Jesus," confirmed a class of twenty persons.

Yesterday afternoon Bishop Whitte preached to a large congregation in St. Paul's Church, Rev. G. H. Norton, D. D., rector, from the text, "Though I reckon of myself, yet my mercy is true," and confirmed a class of ten. At night the Bishop preached again to a full congregation in Grace Church, Rev. B. T. Sharp, rector, his text being, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast," and confirmed a class of eight.

Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock the Bishop preached at the Theological Seminary, near this city, and confirmed a class of seventeen, eight of the candidates being students at the High School. This morning Bishop Whitte being absent, will administer the rite of confirmation in the church at that place to-morrow.

The weather yesterday was fine and all the churches open had good congregations. In Christ Church Rev. Arthur Gray preached in the morning, and Rev. J. S. Mayo at night. Rev. Mr. Whitte, of Washington, preached in the First Presbyterian Church in the morning, and in the Second Presbyterian Church Rev. Mr. Hollis, of Front Royal, preached morning and night. Rev. L. E. Hutson, of Richmond, filled the pulpit of the Baptist Church morning and night. In the M. E. Church Rev. L. H. Perrow, former pastor of the church, but now of Baltimore, preached in the morning, and Rev. John D. Hadley, formerly of New River, Mass., but now of this city, preached at night. Rev. B. F. Benson, formerly of this city, preached in the Methodist Protestant Church. There were no services in the M. E. Church, South. The services in the other churches were conducted by the regular pastors.

The Gospel Temperance meeting in the hall of the Reform Club yesterday afternoon was largely attended. State Senator W. W. Barry, G. W. E. O., of the order of Good Templars in Virginia, Rev. L. H. Perrow, the founder of the Reform Club, and Rev. B. F. Benson delivered interesting addresses.

Bishop Simpson, a most eloquent preacher, arrived in this city to-day from Memphis, where he has been presiding over the Virginia Conference, and will preach in the M. E. Church to-night.

Rev. Mr. Dismick, of the Second Presbyterian Church of this city, preached at Warrenton yesterday.

Rev. S. D. Danson, of New York, will preach in the Free Methodist Church to-night at 7 o'clock.

COME TO GRIEF AT LAST.—"Dr." Foster, who conducted in this city, for a short time, the most liberal style of paper called "The Liberator," has been cured by a brother editor in Tennessee, where he is running a so-called agricultural paper—"The London Farmer." This is the way a St. Louis paper speaks of the editor: "They have a numerous side to journalism down in Tennessee, as well as in the buoyant West. Mr. Foster, of the London Farmer, recently returned to John Littleton, of the Kingston Cyclone, as a 'backguard, thief and scoundrel.' The breezy editor of the Cyclone superadded to London and played around with its editorial contemporaries like a gentle southern zephyr."

THE DUPLICATE COUPONS.—Among the bonds issued under the act of 1879 by the Corporation of Alexandria was one, No. 206, for $1,000. On a coupon in the Author's office coupon No. 5 due January 1, 1882, it was found that two coupons, numbered 5, attached to the said bond, No. 206, due that date, had been presented to and paid by the City Treasurer, the official being authorized to pay said coupons, the same having the private mark of the Corporation thereon. An investigation of the matter by the Auditor has led to the discovery of an error in the printing of bond No. 207, held by Mr. Robert Fortner, of this city, the first line of coupon attached to bond No. 207 being printed as of bond No. 206. The other coupons attached to the said bond are correctly printed. The Auditor has, in consequence of the discovery of this error, requested the return of bond No. 207 and will issue a new bond therefor.

FUNERALS.—The funeral of Mr. Charles W. Newland, whose death from paralysis has been noticed, took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence in the First ward, and was largely attended. Rev. L. H. Perrow, the former pastor of the deceased, officiated, and the remains were interred in the M. E. Church Cemetery.

The funeral of Mr. Henry Schlichting, whose death occurred on Friday night last, also took place yesterday afternoon. A large number of friends, citizens, and other friends of the deceased attended. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Droege, of the German Lutheran Church, and the remains were interred in the Union Cemetery.

The remains of Mr. Charles A. Ward, a son-in-law of Mr. A. D. Ward, whose sudden death at his home in Hazlewood, Pa., was announced Saturday last, arrived here yesterday morning, accompanied by his wife and a number of relatives, and were met by a large number of friends in this city at the railroad depot, from whence the funeral cortege proceeded to the M. E. Church cemetery, where, after funeral services, conducted by Rev. Mr. Fiero, of the Baptist Church, the burial took place.

DEATH OF A TEACHER.—Mrs. Jane A. Cramer, a well-known colored teacher in the city schools, died, after an illness of some weeks, yesterday. She was the daughter of Thomas C. Johnson, who was the body servant of the late William Powe, rector, and was very respectably raised, receiving some education, when she was in instructing her race even before the war. Remarking to the District of Columbia, she married, in Georgetown, S. Nicholas Crouch, a noted English musician, author of the air, "Kathleen Marymore," the "West-South," and she returned here during the war and resumed her occupation as a teacher. On the organization of the public school system, over eleven years ago, she was selected as one of the teachers of Hollowell school, in which position she served faithfully till the day of her death.

THE THROUGH A BARREL AND INJURED.—Eli Leno, Master Carter Smith, the little son of the late Carter Smith, mounted a barrel in the city of his father's residence yesterday, and was hurt in falling the surroundings when the barrel gave way. Of course, when the barrel gave way he gave way too, and went into the barrel in a pile. When taken out it was found that he was falling, the little boy had quite fairly, though not seriously, injured his left leg. Mr. Smith's injuries were attended to by Dr. Lewis, and to-day he is doing very well.

On Saturday night next Snelbaker's United Triple Show will be at Armory Hall.

POLICE ITEMS.—The only prisoners in the dock at police headquarters this morning were Willie Dempsey and Jane Middleton, two colored lunatics. Dempsey stated that he wanted to return to Plymouth, N. C., where he came from. The Mayor ordered him to be locked up until this evening, when he will be sent to his home. The Middleton woman, who was arrested for being drunk Saturday night, was discharged with a reprimand.

FISH REPORT.—Over 400 bunches of fish arrived at the fish wharf this morning from Plum Tree Gut and Deep Hole shores, and sold as follows: Rock and white perch 41 cents per bunch; yellow perch 21 cents per bunch, and herring 17 cents per bunch of six.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Dr. W. B. Gregory, who was taken suddenly ill Saturday night last, was, his many friends will be glad to learn, much improved to-day.

It. M. Dawson's portrait of the late Dr. Knapton can be seen at Tennessee & Co's. frame establishment until Friday evening of this week.

Train No. 53 over the Virginia Midland Railway due here at 12:45 to-day, did not arrive till after 4 o'clock. The delay was caused by a number of cars breaking loose from a freight train near Bathel, this morning, and jumping the track. Several of the cars were damaged.

SERGEANT MASON.—Sergeant Mason, Battery B, Second Artillery, who was recently tried at the Arsenal for shooting at Guilford was sentenced by the court to be dishonorably discharged from the service, with loss of all pay and allowances, even those now due, and to be imprisoned at hard labor for eight years. General Hancock last Friday approved the findings and sentence and named Albany penitentiary as the place for hard labor, subject to the approval of the Secretary of War as to the selection of the penitentiary. Secretary Lincoln approved General Hancock's order on Friday, and under that order Mason would go to the Albany penitentiary were it not for the fact that an error was committed by the court at its very beginning which vitiates the whole trial and must restore Mason to duty as a sergeant of Battery B, Second Artillery. The error was that the court and the judge's advocates were sworn before the prisoner was brought before the court. So that if the matter is brought to the attention of the higher reviewing authorities the proceedings will at once be set aside, and Mason restored to duty in his grade of sergeant.

DEATH OF LORD MONTAGU.—Lord George Montagu, third secretary of the British legation, died yesterday, in Washington, of diphtheria. Last Tuesday night Lord George felt his throat to be slightly sore, but was not in the least alarmed by it. On Wednesday he was so much worse that physicians were called, in, who pronounced the patient to have a case of diphtheria. On Friday evening the operation of tracheotomy was performed, under which the patient seemed to rally, but yesterday morning he grew suddenly worse, and died shortly after eleven o'clock, his end being almost painless. Lord George Francis Montagu, fourth son of the late Duke of Manchester, and half brother to the present Duke, was born in 1855. He was employed for some months in the Foreign Office, and in 1878, was gazetted to Constantinople, and in 1879, he was promoted to the rank of third secretary in the diplomatic service, and was transferred to the position he held at the time of his death January 13, 1880. His lordship was unmarried.

PATER'S AMERICAN MONTHLY for April will contain a very interesting article on the late President Garfield, and among the illustrations which accompany the article will be superior engravings of General Garfield and wife, and the General's Mother.

A Losing Joke.

A prominent physician of Pittsburgh said jokingly to a lady friend who was complaining of her continued ill health, and of her inability to cure her "try Hop Bitters." This lady took it in earnest and used the Bitters, from which she obtained permanent health. She now laughs at the doctor for his joke, but he is not so well pleased with it as it cost him a good patient—Harrisburgh Patriot.
